To All "Spring Musical" Alumni and Friends

It is indeed a pleasure for me to have the privilege of extending to all of you a sincere and warm welcome to our Silver Jubilee celebration, marking a quarter of a century of musical theatre at Emerson College.

Over the past twenty-five years the Annual Spring Musical has had an increasing influence on the Emerson community. Each season more than fifty new people are added to the mounting list of musical participants who, through their creative abilities and tireless efforts, achieve a strong feeling of unity and artistic accomplishment. Beyond our campus, the Annual Musical under the guidance of the Musical Theatre Society has gained the recognition and esteem of the educational and professional community; recieving in 1970 the Regional Citation from the New England Theatre Conference.

I am confident that as the years go on and we head towards our Golden Anniversary, musical theatre at Emerson will continue to expand and offer a constant and increasing challenge to individual growth and development.

As we celebrate this day, I cannot but reflect upon the knowledge that all our musicals from Lady in the Dark to Where's Charley? represent the energies, the talents, and more especially the abiding loyalty which you the students, faculty, administrators and friends have contributed to make this annual experience so worthwhile.

I thank you with feelings of gratitude.

My very best wishes,

Leonidas A. Nickole

Who's Who in the Cast

JOSEPH J. WALSH in the title role of Charley is no stranger to the Emerson stage. Joe has been actively involved in the annual spring musical for the past four years. Some of his favorite roles have been Scipio in Albert Camus' "Caligula", Arnold in Somerset Maughm's "The Circle", Tchaik in Peter Schaffer's "The Private Ear", and Jesus in "Godspell". This past summer he toured the Lake District in Northen England with other Emersonians in an original ensemble production entitled "The Family of Man". An Acting major and most ironically, a graduating senior, "Where's Charley" marks Joe's last performance as the lovable, clownish co-ed.

LINDA J. SUTHERLAND (Amy) is an Elementary Education - Creative Dramatics major. Before coming to Emerson three years ago Linda was a member of the Reagle Players of Waltham. With that group she appeared in the dance choruses of "Mame", "My Fair Lady", "No, No, Nanette", and "Carousel"; the singing chorus of "Brigadoon" and in "South Pacific" as Liat. Linda's dancing ability has been used fully by the spring musical; in the dancing choruses of "On The Town" and "Zorba" and now in "Where's Charley".

JON BROTHERS (Jack) is a native of Lynn, Massachusetts. He has performed in educational, community, and summer stock theatre. Jon has had roles varying from Charles Benthan in "Juno and the Paycock" to Charlie Dalrymple in "Brigadoon". While at Emerson he has appeared in such productions as "Company", "The Fantasticks", "Zorba", and "Jacques Brel...". His television and film credits range from being a grand finalist on "Community Auditions" to being an extra in the Joanne Woodward film "See How She Runs". Jon is currently a senior and plans a career in the entertainment field.

CARLA GWYNN FROEBERG (Kitty) Although this is Miss Froeberg's first appearance in the spring musical she has appeared in a variety of Emerson productions. Audiences remember her in the roles of Eve in "The Apple Tree", Guinevere in "Camelot", Daisy Gamble in "ON A Clear Day", and most recently as Lady Larkin in "Once Upon A Mattress" As well as being a talented actress singer she is also a versatile costume designer. Upon receiving her BFA in design she will be leaving Boston to begin a career in New York.

ROBERT N. JOHNSON (Mr. Spettigue) is currently completing his graduate studies in Theatre Education at Emerson. Before attending Emerson Mr. Johnson was Artistic Director in Residence at Ricker College in Maine. His credits include directing thirteen productions and teaching in various theatrical disciplines. After this year Mr. Johnson will return to college teaching and persue his doctorate in Theatre Education.

PAUL ALAN WILLISON (Sir Francis) comes to Emerson as a transfer student from Oral Roberts University where he appeared in "Brigadoon", "My Fair Lady", and "You're a Good Man Charlie Brown". As a Theatre Education major he plans to teach but also wants to perform. He most recently appeared as Sir Harry in "Once Upon a Mattress", and is making his Emerson Musical Theatre Society debut in "Where's Charley"

SUSAN MALIZIA (Donna Lucia) is a sophomore Dramatic Arts major here at Emerson. Her favorite roles include Mrs. Keller in "The Miracle Worker", Mrs. Strakosh in "Funny Girl", Lady Margaret More in "A Man For All Seasons", Miss Adelaide in "Guys and Dolls", and her most recent appearance at Emerson in "Chamber Music" as the Woman in Armor

Spring 1978

What a rare pleasure it is to extend greetings and congratulations from the administration to the Musical Theatre Society on the occasion of the 25th Anniversary of the Spring Musicals. Few traditions survive the changing social and academic convolutions of a college for a quarter century. Fewer still can claim the broad impact which these musicals have had on cast, crew, and audiences.

As a "guest performer" for five years, I can attest to the personal and educational value of this unique Emersonian experience for countless hundreds of students. The discipline, the team work, and the learning which occurs throughout rehearsals—and the exhilaration and joy at the first applause from an approving audience—are experiences which can never be erased from our minds.

Audiences over the years have extended well deserved praise for the consistent excellence demonstrated by casts, costumers, set designers and technicians. Thousands of alumni, parents, and friends of the College have carried away from these 25 years of musicals a positive impression of the College and our students.

Just as it is impossible to assess the total impact of the "Spring Musical Experience" over the years, so also it is impossible to thank individually the countless faculty and staff members who have given so much of their heart, and soul, and talent to 25 years of musicals. But we can thank two individuals who, more than any others, represent the courage and commitment of all who helped create Spring Musical, and were determined that it would survive.

So, thank you, Dr. S. Justus McKinley, for your foresight and support of the concept, and thank you, Professor Leonidas Nickole, for keeping the faith when many would have faltered.

Oliver W. Woodruff
Acting President
